Order Entered Dismissing Investigation of Lines Ordered In 1913. /

The Interstate Commerce Commission today entered an order dismissing its investigation of the telephone and tele-This order will close without action, the general investigation of the commission, ordered in January, 1913, into the history, financial operations, rates, and telephone companies.

This action was predicated upon the compromise settlement of the Department of Justice anti-trust suit against the Atherican Telephone and Telegraph Company, which was charged with holding a monoply in restraint of trade.

The Interstate Commerce Commission under the amendment to the interstate commerce act placing wire lines under its control, will still consider all individual complaints against regulations, rates or practices of the wire lines.

Former Attorney General Wickersham began the original investigation of the alleged monoply. This inquiry was later dropped by the Department of Justice.

Sweeping Order Entered. Following this action, the interstate A. Gwinn, of this city. The farm consists of 100 acres and is located on the Little River turnpike, near the Virginia Theological Seminary, in Fairfax county, three miles west of Alexandria. It was formerly the home of the late James Patterson. Mr. Gwinn will make extensive improvements to the property and will farm it on a modern scale. Conumerce Commission, January 13, 1913, entered a sweeping order for a general inquiry into the wire lines of the country. A detailed inquiry was begun immediately, but this was rested when Attorney General McReynolds re-opened the Department of Justice investiga-tion under the Sherman law. The case was pressed to conclusion upon a com promise agreement that the American Telephone and Telegraph Company should relinquish control of the Western Union, and should open its long dis tance toll lines to the so-called inde A statement explaining the closing of the case will be made this afternoon. The order follows:

A coroner's jury summoned by Dr. R. J. Yates, coroner of Alexandria county, held an inquest yesterday afternoon at Wheatley's undertaking establishment over the body of Donato Tilli and Vincenzo di Salvestre, the Italian laborers who were killed at Four Mile Run yesterday morning. The jury was composed of George French foreman; George Duncan, John Marcher, Joseph Kraemer, J. A. Carpenter and J. W. Merling. They returned a verdict exonerating the engineer of the engine that struck the men and the railway company from responsibility for the accident holding that "the men did not exercise proper care." LOCAL EXCHANGE

W. R. and E. Stocks Strong at 92—American Graphophone in Good Demand.

The volume of trading on the Washington Stock Exchange today was comparatively light, the removal of minimums yesterday having had apparently little effect on the market. The rush to sell several of the issues which had been inactive under restricted trading which many predicted has failed to develop. The stocks of the Washington Railway and Electric Company continued to be apparently the strongest and most gen-apparently the strongest and most generally sought issues. Two quotation lots of the common stock sold at 92, the high price of yesterday, after the quotations nad been raised from 90% bid and 91% asked to 91 and 92%, respectively. A total of 20 shares of the preferred were disposed of at 85.

Quotations were unchanged on Capital Traction, and only odd lots were offered under 90. The sales of the stock consisted of eight shares at 87, or one point above the price commanded for such lots yesterday.

The first sales of Lanston Monotype stock which have been recorded on the exchange since trading was resumed in December were made at 63 for an odd lot of ten shares, and 60 for a quotation lot. The bid and asked figures were rather widely separated, being established at 58 and 70.

American Graphophone common, a

American Graphophone common, a stock that has attracted much recent attention, was in demand, and a total of thirty shares were traded in at 73. The other sales of the day included $3,000 worth of Washington Rallway and Electric 4 per cent bonds at $1146518. Electric 4 per cent bonds at 814661%. The bimonthly meeting of the Bank-ers' Association of the District will be held Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the rooms of the Washington Chapter,

American Institute of Banking, 1214 F The officers and directors of the Security Savings and Commercial Bank last night marked the second anniversary of the institution with a dinner to the clerks ad employes at the Hotel Gordon. Charles W. Darr, attorney for the bank, presided, and, before introducing those who were to respond to toests, read a number of faked telegrams, the most amusing of which was from Julius I. Peyser president of the bank to various members of the directorate.

The Sarest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed conditions of the money or stock mar-kets. First deed of trust notes (first mort-gages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "git-edge" investments. They do not depend upon the financial responsibility of individuals or cor-porations for their stability, and are exemple frem taxation as personal property. We can supply such investments in amounts from $550 upward. Send for booklet "Concerning Loans and investments"
